The Light is On For You

Monday, April 15th 4-7PM in Parish Chapel

"The Light is On For You" campaign was created by the Archdiocese of Washington and has since been implemented by dioceses throughout the United States. The Diocese of Syracuse is proud to join in this effort and generally offers extended hours for confession on one evening during Advent and Lent. By participating in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, whether our first time in days, weeks, months or years, we are experiencing God's individual and unwavering love for us, and one of the true graces made available to us by our Catholic faith. God loves us just the way we are, but he loves us too much to leave us that way. When we return to the Church for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Jesus rejoices like the father in the Parable of the Prodigal Son. It is never "too late" to return to Jesus and ask for forgiveness. Imagine how joyful you will feel upon confessing your sins, big or small!

Holy Week Reflection

The Cross stands before us in these days as an eloquent symbol of God's love for humanity. ...In his Passion, Death and Resurrection, we are shown that the last word in human existence is not death but God's victory over death. Divine love, manifested in its fullness in the paschal mystery, overcomes death and sin, which is its cause (cf. Rom 5: 12). —John Paul II

The whole passion story reminds us that the type of authority of Jesus is different than that of a worldly power. Christ "emptied himself and became the servant of all." We need this spirit if we are to be we are be "one people healed of all division" and bring an end to the war, violence, selfishness and injustice which divide us. We can treat the "passion of Jesus" in a sentimental sort of way and force a certain sense of grief upon ourselves, blaming our personal sin for Jesus' death.

However, more importantly, we are called to connect Jesus' experience to our own experience today – an experience that includes life and death, injustice and courage, violence and peace. We cannot contemplate Jesus' suffering without contemplating the suffering of our world and its people.

Why is the crowd in the Palm Sunday story so excited? Jesus has no military, economic, or political power. He is a simple human being with no significant material assets.

Why is there a sense of excitement as we begin to enter the Holy Week experience?

Shouldn't we be ready to give up? After all Jesus is about to be killed.

Shouldn't we be discouraged by the human situation today – by war, violence of all sorts, selfishness, failure, injustice, discrimination, poverty, inequality, etc.?

Do we really want to or need to remember the pain and the sorrow that we see in the passion of Christ?

There was an excitement in Jerusalem at the time of Jesus and there is an excitement as we process with palms.

Why? Is it a sense of excitement because God is among us and part of our human situation?

Is it a sense that God is with us in the midst of all the suffering and injustice?

Is it a sense that God is present in the midst of our deepest longings and dreams?

Is it a sense that God is present in the midst of our deepest struggle for what is right?

Is it a sense that God is here in the midst of the great story of liberation and freedom?

Is it a sense that God is calling us to work for liberation and justice?

Is it a sense that apparent defeat is not the final word?

A Time to Celebrate

This is a time to celebrate 10 years as the parish of St. Francis of Assisi! Where has the time gone? I was thinking about the fact that Friday, April 12th is our 10th year anniversary. In 2009, April 12th was Easter Sunday, a fitting inauguration of our parish community. Easter is all about New Life, New Beginnings so we were grounded deeply in the core of our Christian Faith. I believe that the Risen Christ has been guiding us throughout this decade. A parish isn't possible without a community of faith—the people of God. My hat is off to all of you, who throughout the years have made it possible for us to become the parish we are today. Transitions in our lives are always challenging because we have to let go of what is familiar and comfortable, in order to embark on something totally new. It takes great faith! I applaud you for all you have done over the span of these years in helping our faith community evolve and mature. We have accomplished much! It is always good to look back and see what has taken place as the St. Francis of Assisi Parish Faith Community. This weekend there will be a visual display in the church hall. We will display pictures of accomplishments and activities where our parish mission is being lived out. So, be sure to attend and appreciate the journey of these past 10 years.

COME DOWNSTAIRS AFTER MASS!

Reflections from the Parish

"With great pride, I reflect on the 10th anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi Parish. It was during that beautiful Mass, when our new parish was formed, that my grandson, Logan Christopher Kliment (parents Andrew and Melissa), was baptized. Truly a memorable day in every way!" — Elizabeth Kliment

"When the parishes of St. Catherine, St. Christopher, & St. Rita joined 10 yrs ago to form St. Francis of Assisi Parish it felt like a piecing together of parts of each church—but more importantly it was the uniting of these faithful Catholics with the hope for a stronger community of worshipers. The choir has been a wonderful example for me of the joy and sharing of each others gifts to make mass a true celebration. We are so blessed." — Anne Wolanski
