“Scientific evidence for warming of the climate system is unequivocal.”

- Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change

Climate as a Common Good

The climate belongs to everyone and is a complex system linked to what is needed to sustain human life. A “solid scientific consensus” has emerged that human activity has contributed significantly to the general warming of the planet. Other factors also play into this, such as volcanic activity and the solar cycle, but it is now undeniable that our dependence on fossil fuels triggers a large increase in greenhouse gases. Fossil fuels are at the center of the worldwide energy system. Climate change affects the carbon cycle, essential to all life. Potable water supplies decrease; agricultural output is reduced; water levels rise on our coasts; polar ice caps melt, producing increased methane gas. —Pope Francis on Care for Our Common Home

The evidence for rapid climate change is compelling:

Global Temperature Rise

The planet's average surface temperature has risen about 1.62 degrees Fahrenheit (0.9 degrees Celsius) since the late 19th century, a change driven largely by increased carbon dioxide and other human-made emissions into the atmosphere.⁴ Most of the warming occurred in the past 35 years, with the five warmest years on record taking place since 2010. Not only was 2016 the warmest year on record, but eight of the 12 months that make up the year — from January through September, with the exception of June — were the warmest on record for those respective months.

Rite of Candidacy

Candidacy is a liturgical rite of admission requested by a seminarian of his Bishop, which formally acknowledges and enrolls him as a candidate for Sacred Orders.

Brendan Foley, Dennis Walker, and John Leo Oduor will make this step on May 6, 2019 at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Meet the candidates at vocations-syracuse.org and please pray for them as they continue their journey to the priesthood! Highlights from Rite of Candidacy will be available in the Catholic Sun and on social media @vocations-syracuse on Instagram and Facebook.

Reflections From The Parish 10 Year Anniversary

"When we first merged with St. Catherine's there were a lot of hurt feelings from people who had gone to St. Chris since they were children and thought we should include St. Catherine's congregation in St. Christopher's building. I heard many grumbles about the parking and money left to the parish. But mostly it was having to leave the church building they had gone to all their lives. That wasn't my situation so I was less concerned. Unfortunately when the merge happened we lost many of our regularly attending members who went to other churches rather than come to St. Catherine's. Faith formation was taken over by the directors from St. Christopher's so those of us from that program were mostly happy. But it was a big change for the St. Catherine's families; the director they knew and liked was gone and the program changed under new leadership. I remember meetings where parents verbally attacked Jeanne and Father had to step in to protect her. So the initial feeling of the merger was hostility on all sides. The choir was the opposite. Ed Savo remained as organist/choir director and those of us from St. Chris felt the loss of Nancy McNamara, who was the best director we'd ever had at St. Christopher's. Ed, of course, selected hymns and music with which St. Catherine's was very familiar and those of us from St. Christopher's/ St. Rita's had to catch up; luckily most of us were good at sight reading! But we missed some of our old favorites too. Both sides were hurting which didn't lead to a harmonious parish community. We could all feel the tension and see that it was taking a toll on others, especially Father Tim. Then there was a decision to rename/rebrand the church as St. Francis of Assisi and that was the beginning of the turn around to making us a cohesive parish community. Jeanne and Gretchen decided to leave and we got a new faith formation director who was new to everyone so no one resented the changes; and Maria asked and listened before changing. Ed started incorporating some St. Christopher's favorites into his selections so we felt included; although that meant more of his time spent learning the pieces himself. And he started recognizing some St. Christopher's people's talent instead of always relying on the folks he'd depended on previously. And then one day Sister Karen gave her reflection and talked about moving in from the end of the pew to make others feel welcome to sit with you, or sitting in different locations each week to meet more people. Between the new name and the reminder to be welcoming we all started to lose the hostility and welcome each other as members of the same community. I suspect someone who joined St. Francis today would never guess how much turmoil there was at first; we are truly united as one holy, happy parish community!"

Question of the Week

Question for Children: Jesus asks Peter three times if Peter loves Jesus. What one thing can you do this week to show Jesus your love?

Question for Youth: Jesus asked Peter three times to “feed my sheep.” Who are you being called to help in your life right now?

Question for Adults: Christ continues to feed us as his disciples, even after his death and resurrection. How does the Eucharist feed your faith?
