St. Francis of Assisi Parish

1031 Chenango Street, Binghamton, New York 13901

Thank You

You*

It is very challenging to know where to begin or how to write what I feel in my heart from the celebration of last weekend! Everything went so well from start to finish— from the weather that had brought such terrible rain— Sunday afternoon was such a gift with the sun, blue sky, and breeze which added to so much in an unexpected way!

On of the greatest things I want to share with you are the reactions from people who came to the 11:00 A.M. Liturgy and shared in the picnic celebration at The Orchard! From family (visiting from Denver, Massachusetts, Minnesota, NYC, Syracuse, etc.), friends (from area parishes and many from various sites in the Diocese) were so impressed with our parish community! I heard their comments all day Sunday, as well as by phone and text messages this past week. They spoke of the beauty of the church grounds, the beauty of the church environment, the splendid music of the choir and our youth soloists (Natalie & Cassie), the congregational participation, and most importantly the wonderful hospitality and spirit of community they received and witnessed! They said, “I have a hidden jewel with this parish”, and they were so moved by the whole experience. This is something every pastor wants to hear, and their experience of our parish of St. Francis of Assisi has left a lasting impression in their hearts and minds! A true reflection of all of you— THANK YOU to all of you who do so much in the parish that is seen and unseen!

You and I are also graces with truly a wonderful, hard working, and faithfully dedicated staff! Their ministry day in and day out profoundly assists me to effectively do my work to the best of my ability! I want to give a BIG shout-out and heartfelt gratitude to those great people: Dc. Steve Blabac, Dave Bollinger, Joe Carpenter, Sue Ekstrom, Delores Farwell, Fred Hazlett, Patty Hazlett, Maria Kirk, Agnes Miller, and Ed Savo! When you see them, or talk to them on the phone express your thanks for all they do to make our parish function so well!

The celebration after the liturgy was a great experience of parish, friends, and family! As mentioned earlier, the sunshine added to the beauty of the day! Jo Anne Klenovic is quite the organizer! She and her staff did a fantastic job with their setup and take down! No detail was overlooked! The food and beverages from Red & White, McGirk's, and the Testani family were delicious. Also, Scott Freeman and his quartet of music raised the spirit of the celebration! Thank you to all of these fine folks!

The weekend was such an affirming day in what it means to be a priest and the gratitude I have in my heart for these 40 years of ministry! I feel I have grown immensely, spiritually and personally, in the course of my 14+ years with you! You have been a grace in my life and ministry! Thank you for affirming me in the vocation I do enjoy from the depth of my heart!

— Fr. Tim

Embracing and living the call of Baptism. BAPTISM CALLS EACH AND ALL OF US to a conscious and active role in the Mystical Body of Christ. Faith is not a spectator event, parish is not meant for passive membership.

Belonging to Christ carries gifts beyond measure, and real responsibilities that impact the lives of all those who surround us, especially our children, and even our children's children.

A Statement Regarding The Devastating News From Pennsylvania

If you watched or heard the news this past week from Pennsylvania— it has been devastating for the victims of abuse, their families, and the people of our catholic faith. We need to urgently continue to do all we can to rid ourselves of such a scourge to what has taken place in our history. From what I have read, I am disgusted by what my brother priests have done in the past. I pray for the victims and their healing, families still coping with what they experienced, and for us as a church to reconcile with all those tragically effected by this history.

The following is a statement from our Bishop in regards to this news out of Pennsylvania...

“These are difficult days to be a Roman Catholic. The allegations regarding Archbishop Theodore McCarrick and now the release of the grand jury report involving six dioceses in Pennsylvania have deepened a wound for Catholics who have been besieged by news of clergy sexual abuse since 2002. It is understandable for many to ask, "What is next?" "What and who can I trust?"

"How did this ever happen?" The People of God are rightfully asking these questions. In these recent days, we have become painfully aware that those meant to shepherd and guide others are sinners not only in the sense that all are fallible but also specifically in the area of sexual abuse of children and young people. They must be held accountable for their actions. Bishops are no exception.

Our focus together should always be the safety and well-being of the human person - especially the vulnerable and the innocent among us. Over the past 15 years, since the crisis broke in 2002, the Diocese of Syracuse has addressed this problem aggressively by reporting all allegations to the appropriate district attorney, ensuring that no priest with a credible allegation of abuse remains in ministry, and preventing acts of abuse through our highly successful Safe Environment Program. There are now nearly 40,000 individuals trained in child sexual abuse prevention as well as criminally background checked. I am grateful to the trained men and women who have worked tirelessly either as members of our Diocesan Review Board or Safe Environment program to ensure that the Diocese of Syracuse has an established and well-monitored set of policies and procedures that will not allow any abuse to ever take place.

Like you, I am deeply troubled by these grievous acts and I must again apologize for the pain and suffering endured by our people. To the victims of clergy sexual abuse decades ago, I know I can never change what has taken place, nor remove the pain or the anger. I will continue to pray fervently for all victims of clergy sexual abuse, to ask those who have been harmed to come forward to report the abuse in order to begin the healing process and remain steadfast in my personal commitment that this horrific chapter in our local church will not happen again.”

A Prayer For The Victims of Abuse

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just: You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them. Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith. Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth. Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness.

Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Welcome Peter Daino

For Potential Godparents and Sponsors for Baptisms or Confirmation

New Bereavement Support Process

A new Bereavement Support Process will begin Monday evenings September 10, 6:30 to 8:00 and Tuesday afternoons September 11, 1:30 to 3:00 at the Parish Center for anyone who has experienced the loss of a loved one. Such a loss is one of life's most difficult experiences, but sharing one's thoughts and feelings with others who have had a similar loss, can be very helpful on the journey to healing. To register for this ten week process or for any information about the bereavement group, please call Rose O'Neil at 772.0820 (a message can be left) or David Bollinger at 239.0203 by August 31st so books can be ordered.

School Update

As most of you are aware the Hillside Children's Home has been renting our school building since June of last year. Our lease arrangement with Hillside will be continuing until May 31, 2019. However, our plans to continue with Hillside after May 2019 and perhaps sell the building to them after the lease expires have been put on hold. The State Department of Education has not granted Hillside permission to operate a school in our building. There is some sunshine in this message in that we will be working with the Chenango Valley Schools to lease the building during the 2019-2020 school year. We have had some preliminary discussions with Dave Gill (superintendent and one of your fellow parishioners) about using the school during the renovations to Port Dickinson Elementary and Chenango Bridge Elementary schools during the 2019-2020 school year. We are happy about this opportunity to support CV and will continue to work with Hillside until the Spring.
