Reflection: The Solemnity of Our Lord
Jesus Christ the King

The authority of Jesus comes from the power of the truth (John 18) and comes “out of the heavens” (Daniel 7). In other words, it comes from someplace other than the kingly power represented by Pilate. It does not come out of military power, economic domination, threats of violence and abuse, the consumption of or accumulation of things, popularity contests, presentations in the media, or even election results. It comes out of the power of truth and compassionate love.

The authority of Jesus does not simply make us people who have authority exercised over us. Revelation reminds us that we become the kingdom; we become a nation where all are priests; we all share authority. This vision becomes a model for our own way of exercising healthy Christian authority and living out the social teaching of the church.

One way to understand the “kingship of Jesus Christ” is to look at the images that are offered us in the scriptures. When Jesus is born it is to a homeless family. When he travels around as a teacher, he seems to have no permanent home or dwelling and virtually no possessions. When Jesus enters Jerusalem it is on a donkey (not on a mighty horse or chariot). In the gospel, the kingly Jesus is a prisoner of Pilate and will be put to death.

In Laudato Sí, Pope Francis wrote, “It needs to be said that, generally speaking, there is little in the way of clear awareness of problems which especially affect the excluded. Yet they are the majority of the planet’s population, billions of people. ... Indeed, when all is said and done, they frequently remain at the bottom of the pile. This is due partly to the fact that many professionals, opinion makers, communications media and centers of power, being located in affluent urban areas, are far removed from the poor, with little direct contact with their problems.”

If we are to answer the call to protect our common home, we need to be connected with “the excluded.” We need to exercise the type of leadership that was revealed in Christ. We need to move beyond ruling over the earth for our own needs and focus on something bigger than ourselves. In the spirit of Thanksgiving, we need to focus on creation as a gift and a gift that we share together.

#GivingTuesday

Giving Tuesday is a global day of generosity and charity celebrated the Tuesday after Thanksgiving each year. Instead of focusing on buying more things on days like Black Friday and Cyber Monday, Giving Tuesday is about inspiring a spirit of generosity and passing it on to friends and family.

Pick a charity that means a lot to you and support them by donating money or lending a helping hand with that charity on Tuesday, November 27th.

Fall 2018 Parish Events:

Save this announcement and think about what YOU would like to help with. As time approaches call Delores at the parish center (722-4388) during regular office hours or Thank you! OUR Parish needs YOU.

Santa Brings the Perfect Gift

The Christmas rush is upon us to buy, buy, buy and buy! In the Christmas rush, don’t rush to buy the perfect war toy. In these shopping days before Christmas, take some time to think about the toys you are buying for the young people in your life. We wish each other a “Merry Christmas”; we talk about peace on earth; we call Jesus the Prince of Peace, and yet we place toys of war under the tree and around the manger. So many of the video games depict violence and war so graphically that it borders on the obscene. As a people of faith, don’t we find this a major disconnect from what the true meaning of Christmas is all about? Take seriously the words of the prophet of Advent, Isaiah, and turn our swords into plowshares, spears into pruning hooks, and train for war no more. Instead of video games and toys that glamorize violence, give gifts of peace. Toys and games that encourage group play, cooperation and old-fashioned fun will offer hours of quality time. For something different and truly meaningful, take part of your allotment for each child and donate it to a worthy cause such as Pax Christi, or Bread for the World. Tell your child what you did and why. Other possibilities such as Heifer International, will send a card depicting the animal you choose to send to a family in a developing country or give to the Arbor Day Foundation and have a tree planted in someone’s name. Acting in this way, Christmas Day will become a true celebration of Christ, The Prince of Peace. Remember, don’t buy any war toys. Choose toys of peace and give gifts from your heart. Never forget, the children are watching.
